THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE INKWELL

Crash Course in Health Literacy

College teaches students about how to succeed in the classroom and in their future careers. It sometimes fails to give students important life skills that they need to succeed outside of those environments.

One of those skills is health literacy or the ability to locate, understand and use health information to make decisions.

The Suicide Squad: The Best Superhero Movie of the Year

If you are a bit jaded by the typical superhero film that has been getting made recently, this is a film for you. Unique, bloody, fun and sometimes profound, this is a great accomplishment from James Gunn, who may be the best comic book filmmaker working today.

Armstrong Vaccine Clinic on Aug. 25 Gives Students More Opportunities to Get Vaccinated

Armstrong students can make an appointment through their MyGS Portal to receive their COVID-19 vaccine at the Health Professions Building on Wed., Aug. 25.

Student Organization Fair: Photo Story

The Office of Student Activities hosted the Student Organization Fair on Wednesday, Aug. 18 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. View the Gallery to see which organizations attended.

The Full Service Galley is Back: Photo Story

Students who came to the Armstrong campus in 2020 or later would not recognize the Galley that started feeding students on move-in weekend this semester.

To see all the changes for yourself, view the photo gallery below or visit the Galley for breakfast, lunch or dinner on weekdays from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. or brunch and dinner from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.
